- 2.1.11 “Local Authority” means the local authority having jurisdiction over the Estate.
- 2.1.12 “Owner” is the registered owner of an Erf as registered by the relevant Deeds Office. Owners may also be referred to as members.
- 2.1.13 “Penalties” may include a fine that a member becomes liable to pay in respect of an act or omission in conflict with the Estate’s Rules or Constitution, which will be included in and which forms part of the monthly levy statement.
- 2.1.14 “Rules” is the set of Conduct Rules for owners and residents (this document) issued from time to time by the HOA.
- 2.1.15 “Service Provider” means any person and/or entity carrying out development, building or maintenance services on the Estate and shall include but not restricted to building contractors, project managers, building material suppliers, developers or owner builders. This definition of service provider is not exhaustive and where the interpretation of the paragraph warrants, shall also include employees, agents, casual workers and sub-contractors (hereinafter referred to as the ‘staff complement’) of the said service provider that might be appointed for carrying out development, building or maintenance services on the Estate.
- 2.1.16 If any stipulation in a description is a substantive stipulation that provides the rights or obligations to any party, irrespective of whether it is only in the description paragraph, it will be executed as if it is a substantive stipulation in the Rules.
- 2.1.17 When a number of days are prescribed in the Rules, it will be calculated exclusive of the first and inclusive of the last day unless the last day falls on a Saturday, Sunday or a Public holiday, in which case the last day will be the next day that is not Saturday, Sunday or a Public holiday.

3 COMPLIANCE WITH THE RULES

- 3.1 The Rules have been established in terms of clause 11 of the Constitution of the HOA. The Rules as well as decisions taken by the Committee in interpreting and applying the Rules are legally binding upon all members of the Estate.
- 3.2 Owners shall ensure that their families, visitors, friends, tenants, domestic staff or service providers, are made aware of these Rules and strictly abide by them.
- 3.3 Owners and/or their tenants should strive to create conditions for harmonious living while enjoying their private property. Furthermore, they must respect each other at all times and apply the Rules in order to assure a peaceful community.

- 3.4 In the event of disturbances, disputes or complaints arising for any reason, the involved parties should endeavour to settle the matter amicably between themselves. Problem solving should take place in a spirit of tolerance and consideration. In instances where problems cannot be resolved, a party should report or refer the matter to the Estate manager or the HOA for consideration.
- 3.5 Failure by an owner or resident to comply with these Conduct Rules shall result in action from the HOA in the following ways:
- 3.5.1 The Estate Manager will discuss the contravention with the Owner/Resident and agree on a date (depending on the severity of the problem) when the situation will be rectified [within 5 working days of the discussion].
- 3.5.2 If the problem persists, a written notice informing the Owner/Resident of the full details of the contravention will be served. The party must acknowledge receipt of the notice and remedy the contravention within 5 working days.
- 3.5.3 If the problem is not solved to the satisfaction of the HOA within 5 working days after the person had been informed of the contravention, a written notice will be issued to the Owner/Resident warning him/them that if the problem is not rectified within 10 days after this notification, a penalty will be imposed on the party. If it is a tenant, the Owner and/or letting agent will be given a copy of the letter containing the warning.
- 3.5.4 Should the problem persist after the period stipulated in paragraph 3.5.3, a written notice will be served imposing a penalty (in accordance with paragraph 3.5.10) on the contravener(s) stating the reason(s) for the imposition of the penalty.
- 3.5.5 The penalty imposed in paragraph 3.5.4 above, becomes due within 5 working days from the date of the receipt of the notice.
- a) If the owner is residing in the house and the penalty remains unpaid, it shall be added to the levies due by the owner. This will be recovered in the same way as for levies that are in arrears. Payment of penalties will take preference over normal levies.
- b) If it is a tenant, the penalty will be payable to the HOA per EFT/bank deposit. If the fine has not been paid within the prescribed period, legal action will follow.
- 3.5.6 An Owner/Resident may lodge a written objection within 10 working days after receipt of the notice in paragraph 3.5.4 with the HOA against the penalty imposed stating the reasons.
- 3.5.7 Upon receipt of the objection, the HOA may:
- a) withdraw or reduce the penalty, or
- b) Schedule a management meeting to consider the objection and invite the Owner/Resident to attend, or to be represented.
- c) At such meeting [paragraph 3.5.7 (b)], the contravening party shall have the right to present his case, provide evidence, including the calling of witnesses, to substantiate his case.

- d) After the meeting [paragraph 3.5.7 (b)] the HOA may:
- (i) uphold the penalty; or
 - (ii) withdraw or reduce penalty.

3.5.8 Should any dispute arise between the HOA and the Owner/Resident the matter can be referred for adjudication in terms of applicable legislation.

3.5.9 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in paragraph 3, the HOA shall be entitled to institute legal proceedings by way of application, action or otherwise in any court of law having jurisdiction for the purposes of restraining or interdicting breaches of any of the provisions contained in the rules.

3.5.10 Contraventions and Penalties

No	Breach	Penalty (% as a proportion of the monthly levy)
1	- Not adhering to the Estate's traffic speed limit of 30km's/hour and traffic signs. - Reckless and negligent driving	100%
2	- Illegal dumping of garden refuse and building material on other erven or common areas. - Soiling of streets and pavements and littering.	100%
3	Rules under "Pets" clause 16	100%
4	Residents causing a disturbance.	200%
5	Residents not properly maintained and kept neat and falling into a state of disrepair.	200%
6	Any other breach of the rules not specified in the table.	200%

3.5.11 The penalties and suspensions imposed shall be enforced by the HOA or the Estate Manager or authorised Managing Agent.

4. LEVIES

- 4.1 In the execution of clause 6 of the Constitution, the HOA shall from time to time impose levies upon all owners for the purpose of meeting all the expenses in relation to the facilities and services for or in connection with the Estate, and for the payment of all expenses necessarily or reasonably incurred in connection with the management of the HOA and its affairs, including the Estate.
- 4.2 That all levies shall be paid monthly in advance before the 15th day of each and every month to the Managing Agents.
- 4.3 Levies shall be paid evenly amongst all members in possession of registered erven within the Estate.
- 4.4 The HOA may, from time to time, impose special levies (upon members) according to clauses 4.5.4 and 6.5.
- 4.5 Any amount due by an owner by way of a levy, special levy or penalty shall be a debt due by him to the HOA. An owner's successor in title to an erf (new owner) shall be liable, as from the date upon which he becomes a member pursuant to the transfer of that erf, to pay the levies attributable to that erf, but no member shall be entitled or permitted to transfer his erf until the HOA has certified that the member has at the date of transfer paid all amounts owing by him to the HOA.

- 4.6 If an erf is consolidated, then it is assigned as if the consolidation had not taken place; irrespective of the circumstances, provided however that the HOA may in any case – where they consider it equitable to do so – assign to any owner a greater or lesser share of the costs as the HOA may deem reasonable.
- 4.7 Penalties shall be charged, calculated at an annual rate of the prime rate plus 2% on the late payment of any amount due by a member of the HOA and this amount will be compounded annually.

5. ADMINISTRATION

- 5.1 The HOA shall be responsible to ensure that clearance certificates are issued to comply with the conditions of titles of all the properties forming part of the Estate.
- 5.2 Clearance certificates shall not be issued when a property is sold until such time as the owners' levies and or penalties are fully paid up together with three months' advance levies.
- 5.3 The HOA reserves the right to take legal action on overdue accounts. Legal action will be taken in form of a letter of demand on all accounts in arrears of sixty (60) days and thereafter, further action as deemed necessary, in liaison with the HOA's attorneys, to recover monies outstanding. After sixty (60) days the member's Klipheuwel access card will be deactivated. The member will then only be able to gain entrance to the Estate by adhering to the access procedure applicable to visitors. Deliveries for the member will also be denied unless the member physically signs for the delivery at the security entrance gate. Ingress into the Estate for the member's visitors will be treated in the same way. Normal entrance to the Estate will be restored once the member has settled his levy account.
- 5.4 Should the HOA handover any overdue accounts for levies or penalties for collection, the owner shall be responsible for all associated costs, including collection commission, interest at the applicable rate and any tracing fees.
- 5.5 No deposit applicable in terms of these Rules can be used to offset against levies and/or penalties.
- 5.6 While all steps shall be taken by the HOA to ensure that the contact and postal details are correct in order to ensure that invoices reach their correct destination, the onus is on the owners to ensure that their personal information and details are correct and kept up to date.

6. SECURITY AND INDEMNITY

- 6.1 Security is important to the HOA. The Estate's safety and security procedures, rules and standards may never be infringed by anyone.
- 6.2 The electric security perimeter fence of the Estate's closed-circuit television (CCTV) serves as a deterrent and detection function and not a guarantee to prevent possible intrusions to the Estate. All attempts of burglary or instances of fence crawling must immediately be reported to the Security staff on duty. Neither the HOA, Estate Manager nor any of their agents or employees shall be liable for any loss of life, damage or loss of property suffered by any person.

- 6.3 The liability of the Security Service provider appointed by the HOA shall be as set out in the Service Level Agreement. The Security Service provider's key functions shall include:

The member is obliged to inform the tenant of the Rules and Regulations of the Estate and bind the tenant to conform therewith. Any consequence of contraventions of these rules and regulations by the tenant shall be the responsibility of the tenant and not the owner of the property. However, the Estate Manager will notify the owner of such contraventions (see clause 3).

22.2.3 The member or his Letting Agent shall immediately notify the Managing Agent and Estate Manager in the event of the renewal of the lease agreement, in the case where the lessee has absconded, or the agreement is terminated or cancelled. The Estate Manager will immediately notify the Security Service provider accordingly, who in turn will cancel the entry permission of such tenant and for updating the security database.

22.2.4 The owner shall immediately advise the HOA Committee via the Managing Agent in the event of the lessee absconding.

22.2.5 At least 14 days' notice shall be given by the owner to the HOA Committee via the Managing Agent before departure of the tenant on the termination or cancellation of a lease on the registered property.

22.2.6 Owners shall always be liable for charges such as levies, despite a written agreement between owner and tenant.

23. STRUCTURAL CHANGES OF EXISTING BUILDINGS (SEE ALSO ARCHITECTURAL GUIDELINES AND BUILDING RULES)

- 23.1 All alterations or additions to existing structures must be submitted to and approved by the Design Review Committee.
- 23.2 The responsibility for the final approval of building plans rests with the relevant local authority, but such plans may only be submitted to the local authority after approval by the Design Review Committee.
- 23.3 The Design Review Committee may refer building plans to architects for guidance.
- 23.4 The HOA shall not incur any liability to a person in rejecting or refusing the approval of a plan.
- 23.5 The Design Review Committee may request any such changes in design or site layout that, in their opinion, are required to preserve the architectural and environmental objectives of the Estate.

24. BUILDING CONTRACTORS AND PROVIDERS OF SERVICES RELATING TO BUILDING ACTIVITIES

See Architectural Guidelines and Rules of Building Activities

25. VANDALISM

- 25.1 The HOA has a zero-tolerance approach to vandalism (damage) of Estate property. Any damage to Estate property will attract a penalty as stated in Clause 3.5.10
- 25.2 The SAPS will be called and a case of damage to property will be opened. All damages will be restored at the expense of the owner of the property where the perpetrator resides or is visiting.
- 25.3 Should damage be caused to the property of an Owner within the Estate, the HOA will provide the Owner with all the information at its disposal with regards to such damage. Any legal action will then be at the discretion of the Owner.

26. INDEMNITY

- 26.1 Neither the HOA nor its agents shall be liable for any injury or loss or damage of any description whatsoever, which any owner or resident of a portion, or any member of his family, his employee or domestic and/or garden worker or his relative, friend, acquaintance, invite or guest may sustain, physically or to his or their property, directly or indirectly, in or about the common property or in the individual portion by the reason of any defect in the common property or for any neglect on the part of the HOA or any of the HOA's employees, domestic workers, agents or contractors.
- 26.2 The HOA or its agents, representatives and staff shall not be liable or responsible in any manner whatsoever for the receipt or non-receipt and delivery or non-delivery of goods, postal matter or any other property.
